

STACEY F. GUMLEY, CPA

MANAGER

Stacey joined Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP (BPW) in 2011, bringing three years of experience working with a big-four accounting firm. Today as a manager in BPW's audit department, she is well-versed in overseeing audit and accounting engagements, managing client relationships and supervising field work alongside the audit team.

Stacey manages a diverse client portfolio ranging from start-up companies to fully operational for-profit and not-for-profit organizations. She also specializes in serving clients in a variety of industries, including technology, manufacturing and professional services.

Stacey is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the California Society of CPAs (CalCPA). She serves on the Audit Committee for the Santa Barbara Foundation.

Stacey received both her Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Accounting from Louisiana State University.

Born and raised in Louisiana, Stacey likes to travel, read and enjoy the wonderful climate and beautiful scenery that Santa Barbara and the surrounding areas have to offer.

SPECIAL EXPERTISE

- Audit and Accounting Management
- Technology, Manufacturing and Professional Services Industries