

DANNA D. MCGREW, CPA

PARTNER

Danna joined Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP in 1992. Danna is a Certified Public Accountant with experience in coordinating, managing and executing audit and accounting engagements. As a partner in the firm's audit department, she uses creative approaches to highlight opportunities for improvement in your operations. She has been involved in all aspects of financial reporting, including attest engagements, accounting consulting, internal control evaluations and litigation support engagements.

Danna is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the California Society of CPAs and the Certified Fraud Examiners Association. In 2007, Danna was named "Accountant of the Year" by the California Special District Association (CSDA). She was also named Who's Who in Professional Services and one of the Top 50 Women in Business by the Pacific Coast Business Times.

Danna is a graduate of the Katherine Harvey Fellows program at the Santa Barbara Foundation and is highly involved in the local community. She serves on the South Coast Business & Technology Awards Steering Committee as well as their Nominating Committee; she is also President of the California Central Coast Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association Board of Directors. Danna is a member of the Finance Committee for the Santa Barbara Foundation and serves on the Board of Directors for the Scholarship Foundation of Santa Barbara. She enjoys mentoring San Marcos students through the Kids Helping Kids program, aligning students with local business leaders.

A graduate from the University of California, Santa Barbara in 1991, Danna received her Bachelor of Arts in Business Economics with an emphasis in Accounting. In her time away from the firm, Danna enjoys spending time with her family.
