

JOHN BRITTON, CPA

PARTNER

John Britton joined Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP in 1991. John works with a highly diverse client mix, including both private for-profit and not-for-profit organizations, with an emphasis in the health care industry.

John is the partner in charge of BPW's Audit and Accounting Department. He enjoys working with clients at their places of business and finds the people side of audit work most rewarding. John strongly believes in the benefits of ongoing financial training and devotes considerable energy to training and coaching both clients and BPW staff in order to foster continuing improvements in processes and operations.

John completed his undergraduate work at University of California, Santa Barbara in Business Economics with an emphasis in Accounting.

A third-generation Santa Barbara native, John is an active community participant, serving as a member of the Executive Committee of the Elings Park Foundation and the Treasurer of the Santa Barbara Police Foundation.

John is happily married and spends most of his time with his family. When he finds free time, John enjoys playing golf.
