

ROSSELL STUDER

MANAGER

Rossell joined Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP (BPW) in 2017 and is a manager in the firm's client accounting services department. She has been providing accounting services for over 20 years to a wide range of businesses. Prior to joining BPW she worked as the CFO of a boutique hospitality company and spent time running her own business. Today, as a manager in BPW's client accounting services department, she oversees the client accounting services team and manages client relationships and engagements.

Rossell graduated from Boston University with a Bachelor of Arts in Art History. She also completed her Certification in Business Coaching from the University of California, Berkeley, Haas School of Business.

Rossell has called Santa Barbara home since 2013. As a mother of two, Rossell spends most of her free time with her kids. Additionally, she enjoys live music, world travel and cooking with friends.

SPECIAL EXPERTISE

- Client Accounting Services
  - CFO Consulting
  - Hospitality and Restaurant Industry
  - Retail Industry