

SPECIAL EXPERTISE

- Financial Reporting
- Employee Benefit Plan Audits
- Accounting Consulting

TRACEY A. SOLOMON, CPA

PARTNER

Tracey joined Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP in 2003. As a partner in the firm's audit department, she is experienced in planning, supervising and executing audit and accounting engagements.

Tracey has a diverse portfolio of clients, including, but not limited to, start-up companies, governmental entities and both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations. Her specialties include employee benefit plan audits, special district audits and accounting consulting. Additionally, she is actively involved with closely held companies in a wide range of industries, such as technology and service.

Tracey is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the California Society of CPAs (CalCPA).

As a graduate from the University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB), Tracey received her Bachelor of Arts in Business Economics with an emphasis in Accounting and a minor in Global Peace and Security.

Tracey is a native of Santa Barbara and enjoys being outdoors and spending time with her family.