

LEAH DUNBAR

MANAGER

Leah joined Bartlett, Pringle & Wolf, LLP in 2015, bringing a knowledgeable background in accounting. She is a manager in the firm's client accounting services department and works with a diverse client group of high net worth individuals, nonprofits, trusts and S-corps.

Leah assists clients with their cash flow management, general ledger management, financial statement preparation, and payroll and sales tax compliance. In addition, she works closely with CPAs to complete annual tax returns.

Leah customizes financial reporting to fit her clients' needs, which provides them with valuable insight into their businesses. She leverages technology to improve efficiencies in the accounting process and interprets data-driven information that can influence the bottom line.

Leah received a Bachelor of Arts from University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB). In her time away from the firm, she enjoys hiking, attending live music events, traveling and heading up the BPW volleyball team.

SPECIAL EXPERTISE

- Financial Statement Preparation
- Trust & Court Accountings
- Payroll & Sales Tax Compliance